It's Back to School—For Us Too!

by Christy Puglisi

Now that the summer is behind us and the daily routines have begun again, it's a great time for you to take a class or two about a subject that you've always wanted to learn. There are many metaphysical and esoteric classes to be found here at Inspired Events of Maryland and also places like local community colleges and other local metaphysical book and retail stores. Wherever you decide to go, do sign up for at least one class that's special to you and your interests. It's important to continue expanding our beliefs and knowledge in all phases of our lives—learning never goes out of style. All of the gifts that our resident and visiting practitioners and teachers share with us are available to every one of us. We are all special. We all have the ability to expand our knowledge, grow, and evolve. Focus and self-discipline are important factors in learning new skills and expanding current ones.

During the fall, it seems as if our bodies and our lives shift to more consistency and routine. It also seems to be a time to go within and see what our hearts desire. Wouldn't it be a great time to begin a consistent meditation practice? Taking just a few minutes each morning before you go out into the hectic world would be a great benefit to you and your soul. A few minutes to show gratitude, say a few prayers, and set intentions for the day would go a long way for a more peaceful and less stressful day—for you as well as those you encounter. For even more benefits, do the same each evening before you go to sleep. Make some plans for yourself, if you haven't done so already, and harness the fall energies to go within and nurture yourself. ☾

It's Going to be a Great September!

September is filled with special events to really get you inspired. Among our regularly scheduled workshops and services, we offer three big events to take you through the month.

Rev. Hoyt Robinette

Get a spirit card or a more personal private reading from returning physical medium, Rev. Hoyt Robinette, September 4-8. We welcomed Rev. Robinette last May to two days of sold-out circles and readings. If you were unable to see him then, this is your chance now!

Due to an overwhelming demand last time, we have extended his stay to five days and are on our way to selling out again. Tickets are going fast, so be sure to purchase yours now. Visit www.InspiredEventsofMD.com for details.

Author, Bill Bean

On September 10, we have the privilege of welcoming back another popular guest. Co-hosting the night with the Inspired Ghost Tracking Meetup Group, Inspired Events of Maryland brings you local author and experiencer, Bill Bean, to talk about his book, "Dark Forces" and his encounters with evil. The event is free and a large attendance is expected. Reserve your seat by contacting Margaret Ehrlich via email at inspiredghst@aol.com.

And the month wraps up with Tea & Tarot on September 26. Gather a few friends and join us for an afternoon focusing on projections for your future and new life perspectives. Receive tea-leaf and oracle card readings while enjoying afternoon tea and other lite fare. It's sure to be fun and fulfilling! Tickets are $45 and include one card reading, one tea-leaf reading, and a pouch of Summerbridge Tea. Additional readings and tea pouches can be purchase? as well. Details and tickets are at www.InspiredEventsofMD.com. ☾

Greetings from the Hathors

through Rev. Carolyn Wilson, Resident Practitioner

"We are the Hathors; we send you love and light. Now is the time to open your minds and hearts to the love and light that is coming in from all that is a part of the plane of Creation. Many are helping at this time. Why? Because this is the time to start getting ready for the 2012 conscious change."

"I, Dayman, tell you that you are on the path of a new birthing. Do not fear the coming times, although they may seem hard at times they also will be transforming. By October, many new energies will have been given to you to help you to grow, to become. Yes, at times growing and learning new things can be trying, but when you become the person you know you truly are and this shines forth, others will also see this and feel this."

"You would have become even more of the Lightworker, which will help this Earth and help humanity to move forward to Ascension. This is worth the perhaps small bits of uncomfortable moments. Do not mistake my words. I do not mean that growth is always hard work; it can be fun and rewarding."

"Many times in the past, mankind did not work with these birthing energies, and some of those did open and use them for their own gain and not for the good of mankind. But with your free will, mankind has slowly opened up to these birthing energies."

"You are using them in a positive way helping each other and helping the Earth."

"Now is the time to prepare for a conscious enlightenment. Many of you will see and feel the difference after 2012, but there will still be many that will not see or feel much of a difference. Why? They will be just opening, but they will be like newborn babes ready to learn and grow. Those who are open and have been learning, growing, and working with the love and light (so called Lightworkers) will teach and help the newborns."

"The birthing energies and all energies, no matter what name you may give them, will help to bring up the vibration level of the Earth and all Kingdoms within Her or on Her...the mineral kingdom, plant kingdom, animal kingdom, and the human kingdom. This is the big step into the higher spiritual dimension of Creation."

"We as a group had to struggle like you for many a long time. We understand how hard it is, but also fun at times, to grow, to become, to be. This is why we offer to help you. Always remember that we cannot do the work for you—you have to take the steps that will take you forward into your own Ascension—but we are there to guide you and to give you encouragement to keep keeping on."

Love and light, and new birthing, Dayman, and the Hathors ☺

Rev. Carolyn Wilson recently learned through a private reading that she was to begin channeling the Hathors. Each month, Rev. Wilson will bring to you a very special message from them.

Send Healing Energy to a Sick Child

by Lisa Wilson

During the months of October and November, Inspired Events of Maryland will be taking up a collection of "Healing Huggables" in an effort to provide compassion and care in a heartwarming way to individuals, caregivers, and families who are experiencing life-limiting illnesses.

Healing Huggables drive runs October through November.

On Kindness Day, November 13, Rev.

John Edward Rothamel, Jr., Pastor of the Light Center Spiritualist Church in Glen Burnie, will offer a service at 6:30 p.m., at Inspired Events of Maryland. Rev. Rothamel will conduct a service where the animals are held and charged with healing (blessed) energy. They will be then named and tagged to be given to the children at Hospice of the Chesapeake.

A collection box will be located in the Inspired Events of Maryland gift shop. Please gift only a new stuffed animal, with the tags still on them. Due to the chance of contamination, slightly used stuffed animals and toys without store tags cannot be accepted. ☺

Staff Updates

We are happy to announce Rev. Carolyn Wilson will be returning as a resident practitioner beginning September 10! Carolyn is recharged and ready to see clients, and she has some new things in store for the upcoming months. Carolyn will be available Thursdays through Saturdays from 11:00 a.m. until 5:00 p.m. and she's beginning an Ascended Master Healing Circle the third Thursday of each month. Look for new events with Carolyn on our calendar and through the Inspired Energy Healer's Meetup.

Mary Perry and Linda McCarthy

We would like to thank everyone for their patience as we got through Carolyn's absence and are excited to announce the arrival of two ladies who will become the daily faces of Inspired Events of Maryland. Mary Perry and Linda McCarthy will be taking over the reigns and moving Inspired Events to the next level of service to inspire each of you on your journeys. You'll interact with these ladies and will see them at our events. Please introduce yourselves and make them feel at home as they become the heart of Inspired Events of Maryland. Look for articles from each of them in October's newsletter. ☺

"Greetings My Beloved Children, I AM Sanat Kumara, Lord of 'Milky Way' Galaxy. I honor you My Children, as you pursue Your Hearts Desires. As I share this with you, please ask yourself this pertinent question. Do I live my life in JOY?"

"The Spiritual Student that is moving towards Ascended Master, Master of Their Energy, MUST understand what it is to be Heaven on Earth. And this IS JOY, My Children. You have spent MANY incarnations pursuing Ego and all of its children."

"When do you stop, and listen to your Heart?"

"Your Heart is Mother/Father God, and sooner or later, the Spiritual Student MUST learn to listen to their Heart."

"Your Heart is your Spiritual Vault. Your Heart is KEY to your FREEDOM. And My Child, Your Heart WILL GUIDE YOU BACK INTO THE ARMS OF MOTHER/FATHER GOD, YOUR HOLY CREATOR."

"It is not by DEFAULT that you are reading My Words. Your Heart has guided you to Hear Again, what you KNOW to be truth. AS ABOVE SO BELOW."

"There are no mistakes, everything in your life, has led you to this point. When do you take charge and state to the Universe, My Heart Means More To Me than ANYTHING ELSE? WHEN My Child Do you realize this?"

"YOUR HEART is CALLING YOU, WHEN DO YOU LISTEN?"

"The road back to that which created you is difficult at times, and yet, were it easy you would not listen."

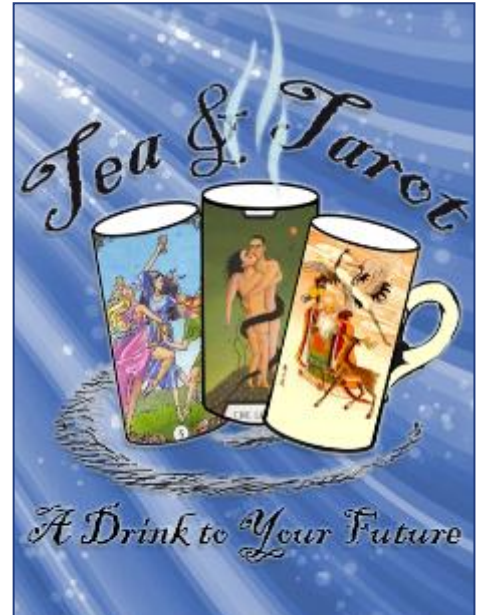

"DO NOT UNDERESTIMATE THE POWER OF GOD."

"Mother/Father God WILL guide you with the Amazing Help of the Royal Angelic Realm, Nature Consciousness and Spiritual Hierarchy, including The Great White Brotherhood of Ascended Masters."

"I have just described your Spiritual Arsenal, which is available to you, each second of your life. If you are not utilizing this Help for your Spiritual Growth and Evolution, you are missing out on MUCH."

Balancing Your Chakras is Crucial to Your Well-Being

by M. Linda Furrow, Inspired Events of Maryland Resident Practitioner

Every one of us have chakra centers in our body which correspond to a different levels of our mental and physical being. If your chakra energy centers are underactive, you will feel it both mentally and physically. Similarly, if your chakra energy centers are overactive, you become greedy, selfish, and much less confident. Balancing your chakras is the answer to a healthy physical, mental and spiritual life.

The table to the left shows what can happen if your chakras are not balanced. We've all felt some of the above symptoms at various times in our lives, some more so than others. That's because our main chakras have not been balanced. ☪

1	Base Chakra	Underactive	Fearful, nervous, anxious, feeling unwelcome
		Overactive	Materialistic, greedy, resist change
2	Sacral Chakra	Underactive	Unemotional, feeling of plodding along
		Overactive	Too emotional, too needy, too attached
3	Solar Plexus Chakra	Underactive	Timid, indecisive, don't get what you want
		Overactive	Domineering, aggressive, selfish
4	Heart Chakra	Underactive	Cold and distant
		Overactive	Suffocating with love, too needy, selfish
5	Throat Chakra	Underactive	introversion, shy, don't speak up much
		Overactive	Domineering, speak too much, bad listener
6	Brow/ Third Eye Chakra	Underactive	Rely on others decisions, confused easily
		Overactive	Live in your mind and not the real world
7	Crown Chakra	Underactive	Rigid thinking, not spiritually aware
		Overactive	Rely on spirituality too much

TV's "Medium", Allison Dubois—Compassion in Action

by guest writer, Rochelle Spiker, rose817@aol.com

For Allison Dubois, namesake of the TV show "Medium", life means taking compassionate action for justice and healing. Appearing in one of her nationwide seminars at the BWI Marriott July 9th, Allison moved the audience/participants to both laughter and tears frequently with her recounting of her forensic work and her attempts to help unite the grief stricken living with the departed. She candidly described herself as being "sarcastic and straightforward" and the deceased as also using sarcasm and a sense of humor.

While swimming well away from the shore as a teenager, Allison found herself being circled by a large shark. She prayed and made a pact with God to do whatever he wanted and to help people if He would protect her. She has devoted herself since then to helping others with her gift of mediumship.

Many of the demographics about Allison portrayed in "Medium" are exactly the same as in real life. She is from Phoenix and her abilities came to the forefront while working in the D.A.'s office. She is married to Joe Dubois, a "rocket scientist", and has three daughters. Then the two realities depart. TV Allison has vivid visions, frequent prophetic dreams, and even time travels. Real life Allison utilizes automatic writing in her readings, and then has a sense of the deceased. TV Allison is very moody and frequently cries, her husband Joe is often skeptical of her work. Real life Allison is more grounded, and Joe is completely supportive of her work.

Allison began the seminar by describing some of her forensic work, ongoing with law enforcement agencies. She specializes in missing persons cases, and the deceased help her to find where they have been buried if they were murdered. She then gave a few life readings to the audience, but the majority of the evening was devoted to uniting the grieving with the departed. She was especially interested in connecting anyone who had lost a child, and sought to meet with those who lost someone due to murder privately, at the end of the event. She expressed surprise that at least five attendees had lost someone due to suicide. These were the most painful readings to hear, with raw grief being expressed openly. Allison really demonstrated a big heart, gentleness, and compassion for these people, and found a way to make them, and the audience, share a laugh with the deceased.

Regarding the initial connection with the dead, Allison stated that "me connecting with you and the other side creates a triangle of energy". When souls come through, there is electricity, which is why electrical appliances can be affected. There are many presences in a house when someone is about to pass, which is why things around the house go haywire. People with Alzheimer's and Parkinson's Disease, who keep talking about those who have passed as if they are still around, are already partially on the Other Side. When the dog barks and no one is around, the dog is not crazy, it's the deceased. They can manipulate animals and even other people in their attempt to communicate with you. Birds flying around near you, roses mysteriously arriving on an anniversary, are all examples. If you dream about a person who has passed, it is a visitation from them.

Regarding the state of the deceased, Allison asserted that the deceased look like the best version of themselves, "not weird". They like to be remembered as living, and not the way in which they died. They still retain all their habits, they still smoke and will say "it can't kill me now". They still have their 5 o'clock martinis. "Where they go is really cool...it is their version of heaven..." There are soul groupings on the other side. Everyone who has passed from suicide knows each other and they are with each other.

Her life philosophy is "live it big while you are here now". We're all lucky when we look in the mirror and see wrinkles. Remember that we are here because we asked to be here. Always remember and honor your inner child. Every morning is a day closer to being with the ones we love on the Other Side. Remember that they want you to live!

Prior to attending the seminar, you are given two choices of tickets, the VIP meet and greet for $150, and regular seating for $95.00. VIP tickets allow you to meet Allison, get your books signed, and sit in the first few rows, where you have a much better chance of being called on for a reading. The cheap seats, where I was, are in the back and you have a lesser chance of getting a reading. While I didn't get to meet Allison, I did get to shake hands with the amiable Joe Dubois, who mingled with the crowd. All in all, a remarkable night of compassion in action. ☺

Numerology for the Month

with Rev. Carolyn Wilson

2009 = 11 = 2

We can use the 11 as the energies of challenge. Then 2 is the Love energies for the family, the group, and humanity. 9 is creating real change through vision.

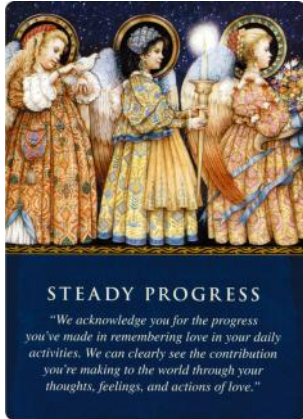

September = 40 = 4

Remembering that the 0 gives extra strength to a number, our 4 is strong in how and what we will be doing this month for it will have an effect towards our future.

So for this September, it seems we are given the energies to work towards change in ourselves in a positive way which can be ever-challenging. When we change our negatives into positive loving energies and show it and give it to others, we are making for a better future for ourselves. ☺

Angel Card of the Month

with Ellen Starchenko

Card from Doreen Virtue's Daily
Guidance Oracle Cards: Steady Progress

Steady Progress

"We acknowledge you for the progress you've made in remembering love in your daily activities. We can clearly see the contribution you're making to the world through your thoughts, feelings, and actions of love."

You drew this card as reassurance that you're making steady progress. You sometimes harshly compare yourself to others, and feel that you should be farther ahead on your path by now. Yet look how far you've come, how many lessons you've learned, and how many people you've helped! Focus on your progress, instead of expecting perfection from yourself. Each day, take at least one small action step concerning a project that you're passionate about. ☺

Mercury Retrograde

by guest writer, Susan Regan, sregan1@comcast.net or (410) 562-9747

The third event of four this year is September 6-29

Beginning September 6 and lasting until September 29, the planet Mercury goes retrograde. During a retrograde cycle, Mercury appears to travel backwards in the sky. In actuality this is simply an optical illusion and trust me by the end of the cycle the symbolism here will not be lost!

Mercury retrograde is a powerful astrological influence that tends to evoke fear in us; fear of all the things that we perceive will go wrong during this three week cycle. We anticipate frustration, miscommunication, breakdown of electronics, lost items, delays, angry disputes...shall I go on? But what exactly is the infinitely wise universe attempting to teach us during a Mercury retrograde cycle?

Mercury was known to the ancients as the Messenger of the Gods and rules communication, mental clarity, perception and travel. Essentially Mercury retrograde is asking us to look backwards on the path we have been following, to pause, reflect and observe, to go within for some deep introspection. It is a time to ponder your path and offers you an opportunity to re-evaluate if this is in line with your destiny. Let's face it; nothing slows you down quicker than lost car keys or a frozen computer!

Miscommunication during a Mercury retrograde cycle is common and often fuels a fire that is burning underneath the surface. Through rather "heated" discussions with others, you may be shown the ways in which you personally communicate out of fear rather than love. When you are in that combative discussion and you feel the steam coming out of your ears, take a few deep breaths and remember the universal spiritual principle of All is One; we are deeply interconnected. What is your soul trying to tell you through this person (remember Mercury the messenger) that your ego is resisting? What illusion(s) do you need to let go of?

Mercury is both a messenger and a trickster. Mercury retrograde will "trick" you into surrendering that which does not serve you, again offering you an opportunity to come face to face with your illusions. The archetype of the Trickster will also show up when the soul is not open to divine communication, again asking us to slow down and listen to our still small voice.

Finally, try to change your perspective and flow with the Mercury retrograde cycle; do not waste energy fighting it? Focus your energy inward so that ultimately once this cycle is over, you'll be a little wiser, a little further down your path. When the smoke settles in October, remember to be grateful to those messengers in your life that help your light shine a little brighter. ☺
