Blue Ray Energy Creating Harmony

by Inspired Journeys manager, Rev. Mary Perry

The Wish provided by
thesacredfeminine.com

It is time for the dispensation of the Blue Ray Light of Creation that carries the Sacred Divine Feminine of balance and healing for the planet. This energy is surrounding us now and has been working with us to take back our divine power.

We are in a time where we are being asked to heal our soul scars and group energy imprints of fear. These memories and encodements were put into place so as to not continue the same pattern of misuse of power here on Gaia. These energetic imprints and frequencies are now being called to be transformed. They have served you and are part of your alchemical equation of your heightened state of becoming your Christ consciousness.

Most of the power structures and systems here in the earth reality are not in peace with the Sacred Divine Feminine and Gaia. The Sacred Divine Feminine encoded frequency of the Blue Ray has a holy power that is in complete alignment in Harmony to Source Creation and creates balance on the earth plane. The Blue Star Hopi prophesies, 2012 shift, and the Blue Ray dispensation of Light work together in a synergetic field in returning to the sacred ways and becoming unveiled in your true essence through the Sacred Divine Feminine.

Look inside your heart to heal all with this powerful Blue Ray Energy, become in harmony with all around you. You are a divine being and capable of living life whole and healed acknowledging the presence of the Divine.

As you heal and use the Blue Ray you will invoke the Sacred Divine Feminine essence of love and gentleness. Create harmony by invoking the Blue Ray Energy to help you awaken to your purpose, align your creativity with your purpose, raise your vibrations, provide you with energetic protection and support, to be centered and balanced, to speak your truth and to heal all inner scars.

Invocation~ The Art of Montserrat

Blue Ray Invocation and Prayer

"Archangel Michael, Archangel Gabriel, Saint Germain, keepers of the Blue Flame, Lords of the Blue Flame from Sirius, Legions of the Blue Lightning Angels, El Morya, Angels of the Will of God, Shekinah, Gaia, and my higher Self, please direct my highest good."

Reaching out with both hands, then bringing to your higher heart chakra, begin

"Gathering all parts of my core essence, in my sacred heart, in holy reverence of the Sacred Divine Feminine of Grace in me, I invoke the Blue Ray of Creation to strengthen the power of the will of God in my body and being."

Power of the Blue Ray, anchor my full expression of creativity and purpose.

May I glorify and serve the Divine Plan of unconditional Love and Light. Awaken my voice, that I may speak my truth in the harmony of my radiant I Am presence.

Empower my super sensitive nature that it may serve as my beloved master guide to discern and commune with the energies of Creation.

May I be the place of peace, a gift to God in the joy of living?

Blue Ray Elohim, wrap me in your enfolding Love of Light of complete protection, for I Am whole, in my absolution as a sovereign being, One with Creation, in perfect unity, an instrument from which God flows I Am."

We have much to share and give to you, the whole of Creation. Your star sisters and brothers of light, we are One!

The blue ray holds the frequency of eternal wisdom and detachment from form, so that new potentials, new levels of consciousness can be attained and eventually formed into matter.

Invoke this Blue Ray Energy to hold this wisdom in your heart space, heal all parts of you and those around you including Mother Earth. Move in harmony with all.

Peace to you!

Mary

Turning Transition into Transformation

by resident practitioner, Laurissa Heller

It is no surprise to those of us who are paying attention that it is an age of change; we are moving into a space and time where things are going into a shift, from the old into the new. So how do you fit into that change, and how is it showing up in your life? Are you willing to look at your life honestly, or are you hiding under the blanket hoping that the energy will pass you by? Personally, I think I do a little of both. Although, nothing is more interesting to me than looking at the planets when I am trying to figure out how I fit into the picture.

For those of you are interested in taking a closer look, I have put together a workshop that will assist you with your search. We are going to work with your personal birth chart—and the current energy, combine the two with creative writing, gentle yoga and mediation to create a flow chart of information. Opening ourselves to our archetypal energy and taking in the universal vibration around us is an excellent way to tap into our highest potential. On June 19 at Inspired Journeys, the sun will be in the tenth house, which is our place of work and our highest potential. This is the perfect energy to seek out if you are searching for your next step. The moon will be in the first house and will give us the ability to dive into to our creativity, and also what we have always had within us that makes us feel secure.

This is not the time to sit back and let life drive you. It's a time to meet up with the energy in your life that has been trying to get your attention. Let the vibration in and work with it. The deadline for the workshop sign-up is June 5. Contact Inspired Journeys to find out how you can take a journey into yourself to find what has been trying to get birthed. ✧

Change in the Weather

a monthly message from the Hathors through resident practitioner, Rev. Carolyn Hogan

I'm Dayman, we are the Hathors. We are your brothers and sisters in the light. We try to give you some helpful information that will help you on your path of life.

Weather change happens on most of your planet. You have good runs of weather and bad runs of weather. It is always changing. This is how life can run. You have good runs of weather and your have bad runs of weather.

Lets us first talk about the bad run of weather. God is not giving you this period of hard times. This could be a time of lessons for you and those involved in the situation, or it can be a challenge to work through—an initiation. Whatever it is you or the group, you are the ones who agreed to experience the run of bad weather. Why? So that you can learn and develop, or to say it in another way, to bring up your vibration.

This you did before coming here. It was your free will to choose how to develop. Now you have free will here. Your free will is how you will react to the situations. Will you be the master of your emotions or will you let your emotions rule your reactions and stay in the whirlwind of bad weather?

We know that at times it feels like this run of bad weather will never change. Yes, if you do not master the lesson, challenge, or initiation, then the bad weather can stay for a long time—even lifetimes. God gives you all the time you need to work through all your lessons, challenges, and initiations even if it does take lifetimes.

Now, how about the good run of weather? This is what you have earned by doing positive work in this life and/or past lives. This is the rest time, the fun time, the joy time, the break from learning and growing. This is the Blessed time. Yes, you even agreed to this time in your life.

Remember you are the one who decides what lessons and challenges to experience with your free will. Always remember nothing stays the same, change always happens. May you experience more of the good weather than the bad weather in your life.

We are the Hathors and I'm Dayman. ✧

The Fertile Loam of Cosmic Consciousness and the Alchemy of 6-21-10

by Judith K. Moore, Ph.D., www.RecordsofCreation.com

From the heart of the Beloved, life flows through the realms and dimensions. This time of physical distance has been like the preparation of a fertile loam for the seeds of consciousness to go deep into your psyche. Certainly you can both see the higher aspects of your work together and the evidence of that is profound. But there is a deeper, much deeper aspect of the weaving of light and the capacity that both of you have to be not dependent on physical affirmations and the senses such as touch and sight because you are only using the sense of speech and listening. You are attuned psychically and this attunement is in balance. As you speak in harmony, there is a balance between your psyche of what is spoken and what is heard. And this is the balance of the harmony that is required at the very source of creation for universes to emerge. This is the harmony that's required in the vibration of conception for life to occur. And this harmony permeates the Chronicles of Ibis and has become an axis energy in the corridor because you are confluenced and harmonic in the multi-planes, multi-dimensions.

In the beginning of your work together, you had a soul contract. The soul contract was a premise or a foundation but you have never really accomplished in any lifetime the synchronized harmony in the multi-dimensional aspects of your consciousness that you have now. And this is a capacity that's generated from the eva of your DNA. This vibration that embodies the core energies of the Chronicles of Ibis is an omni-vibration that infuses aspects of the world and the dimensions without a need for you to have direct influence. But by the nature of an osmotic relationship of particle form and by the nature of the Age of New Genesis. This energy is generated from your harmonic polarity.

This vibration optimizes the confluence of essence into the 3rd dimension for, of course, the evolution of consciousness, but the preparation now for the new books of Creation that must be seeded during this era to be opened throughout the time of the manifestation of the Age of Ascension on Earth.

These are the Books of One, the Way of Peace, the Law of Love and the discipleship of the Beloved. These are the first books of the New Genesis and the Golden Age of Peace. And your energy field is primed for the confluence of vibration from Source as Creation itself is expanding. This expansion within the matrix of Creation must find a way to express itself in the physical universe and the loam of the Chronicles of Ibis is the fertile soil for these cosmic seeds that grow the Garden of Eden for the future generations.

Over these past seven years, you have moved into point zero and gleaned the vibration from world wisdom through the Chronicles of Ibis and the outreach to the unified human experience, the outreach of compassion and the web of light that has woven together the souls of the 144,000 and the 52:52 and the 13:13:13, the souls of light that illuminate the way through the individual and master planes. And this web is complete now. The weaving reached completion upon the Key of Prophecy and the journey to ancient source. Because what was experienced by you through this pilgrimage was experienced in a multi-cultural sense because of the opening of the archives of such a diverse and rich spiritual practice of adoration of the Divine through the multi cultural experience of humanity. And your minds have touched many souls and your heart has reached out in the purest way. And now the garden lay ready for the cosmic seeds that fertilize the Chronicles of Ibis and the realms of those, the realms of the Record Keepers of Creation are prepared.

The Chronicles of Ibis has opened new Akashic fields, new libraries of light, for the source of all wisdom to form itself into visions, poetry, song, dance, artistic expression, music, throughout the diverse cultures of humanity. And this is the seeding of light through the Gates of Shambhala flowing through the center of the Sacred 9 and the Sacred 7 and the Trinity Lens.

You have known on a soul level that there was a coming of this time and your soul reckoned with this experience with your family of light, your community of faith who also feel the vast potential and the depth of this love. And it is the purest alchemy and many alchemical components have come together to prepare this field.

The Harmony of One becomes fully resonant on the Earth Plane June 21st and those souls who are ready to surrender totally to bliss and peace, who have deep a sense of awareness of the significance of this day. And regardless of the level of evolution, the light that illuminates the planet on June 21st will be felt on an electro-molecular level by all expressions of consciousness because it is a super-conductive field. And each individual that has been drawn into this Ascension Lens is part of the electromagnetic vibration from the DNA that generates the essence through an omni-field.

Thus, linear communication is a fractal. It is minute. Oral communication is just a part of the communication of the heart that infuses the mind and the spirit of the World Soul. And there is a pure communion with this vibration, with the soul of your Mother Earth. She is pleased. It feeds life into the world and her soul has always been strong, her spirit brilliant and the strength she has had to survive duality has required her to experience the sorrow, the agony and the fear in total faith, knowing that she is capable of rejuvenating her body. She knows this. She knows that she is capable of rejuvenating her body and there is joy for she truly is a persona, she is a being and she knows joy and sorrow. And this Chronicles of Ibis, the Lens of Manifest Harmony feeds her light. It feeds the Mother Earth and she drinks of this elixir and this liquid gold, generously. And if there were no other purpose for the Chronicles of Ibis other than the feeding of manna from the cosmos to the spirit of the Mother, this is the primordial, the prime purpose and certainly feeding the consciousness of a New World of Peace is an essential purpose.

The consciousness of a New World of Peace is fundamental. Your Mother Earth requires participation. She requires cooperation and focus as you open as vessels of light to allow the manna to flow from the soul of the Great Mother and the Beloved Union of the Creation Elements through the Lens of Ibis, through the Chronicles of Ibis, through the adoration of the Divine, to feed her spirit. And this is a catalyst for her rejuvenation. For she lives on the vibration of love. This is the food of her spirit. And when love is given and received in harmony in the Beloved Union of the soul, this love is the purest form of essence that the Mother Earth requires to live and to give life to the world.

This time, these sacred days, are optimum times astrologically, optimum times for the alignment of the Great Cycles, optimum for this feeding of the spirit of your Mother planet. This is a critical time. This is a critical time when she is choosing light, when she is choosing to allow life to continue on her surface and not to wipe the planet clean as she has done in the past. And she must know that by allowing the world to continue, by allowing the cycle to transcend rather than to destroy, for she is the Great Sophia and she is capable of devouring that which would bring an end to reason and bring an end to life. This is the deepest reference to light, the deepest reference to life. She is capable of rising up with natural forces and cleansing the Earth as she has done in the past. And she must know from her inner plane, from her source of wisdom, that the journey can be made and the alchemy of transformation is primed. This vibration of the Harmony of One, the power of the tetrahedron light, the cooperation of quantum field of human consciousness is the catalyst for Earth's movement, for her choice to live and support life on the surface.

She has a greater capacity to rejuvenate herself than most scientists could ever imagine. But why should she do that if humans are so unwise as to continue with greed and suffering. She must be assured that there is truly a critical mass. And this is a vibration that she is sensing through the unified field of all of the people who pray together this June 21 in all the places on the world.

This is a Time of the Calling of Souls.
This is a Time of Great Promise.

It is a time to step into the light with the confidence that she has and the faith and the assurance that the future is possible. A future of peace.

We are the Elohim of Peace. We speak through this messenger and send this message out to as many people as you can to prepare for June 21 with a commitment on each individual's part to fully experience yourself as love that day.

For this one day is a day like none other. This one day is a mark in time and a pivotal energy will emerge from June 21. And as you experience it you will experience that day as much like many other days when you have come together to pray and celebrate, to embrace community of faith. For there is much joy amongst this community of awakened ones for the coming together of these ceremonial days that celebrate the Awakening. And you will experience this day much like other days, during world peace prayers and times of focus.

But it will be deeper in your soul. This day will be deeper in the soul of the world because the alchemy is perfect and the time is NOW.

You are the one and the many.
You are the ones we have been waiting for.

We are the ones we have been waiting for and we gather together now and what Earth experiences June 21 will be experienced in many dimensions as your cosmic brethren will participate with you in other dimensions. Celebration of Oneness and the promises eternal life, for Creation, for the world and for other worlds is the focus of peace this day.

So be aware of your community of faith in the human realm, the non-physical realm and of the multi-dimensional participation by your cosmic brethren, the Angels and the Ascended Masters.

For you shall all breathe together on this day, the Breath of Life.

Blessed Be. ✧

Inspiration for the Month

Card from the Rider-Waite Tarot Deck by Arthur Edward Waite and Pamela Colman Smith

Tarot Card of the Month: The Eight of Pentacles

by Resident Practitioner, Melissa Feick

Creation and abundance in all directions if you stay focused. Your creative juices are really flowing this month so take action in order for your creations to become reality. Creation and perseverance can go a long way when you know what you want. Do you know what your goals are? If not, take some time to meditate and contemplate what your goals are for the next month to six months. Once your goals are in place let it go into the Universe and put a to do list or action plan to get things moving in the right direction. ✧

Numerology of the Month

by Resident Practitioner, Rev. Carolyn Hogan

June's numerology is 5 = Freedom. Often thought of as fun and games, but it can also bring the unexpected. This energy is good to use for breaking tough barriers and restrictions, this is good for letting go of the old and moving forward.

2010: = 2 = Humanity, which is developing a universal love for the group. The number 0 adds strength to the number it is connect to.

1= striving forward. When you strive to do all things in your life right, this brings in leadership.

Adding 2010 together we get the number 3 = self-sacrifice. We know that this year we should make sacrifices in our lives. When we add the numbers, 5 + 3 = 8, we get responsibility. So, June is telling us we need to have fun with responsibility and to give to others with joy. ✧

Keeping Your New Year's Resolution, Part 6

by resident practitioner and certified life coach, Tara Baldwin, CLC

When we are breaking our limiting patterns, it's important to have something ready to do in place of our limiting pattern. I call this Replacement Technique, Element 6 of breaking your limiting pattern. For example, if you always smoke when you get into your car, try turning on an audio book every time you get in your car instead so that this new positive association becomes your new habit. Every time you get stressed, instead of reaching for food, concentrate on your breath for two minutes. If you commonly take out your stress on your spouse at the end of your work day, try taking a walk around the block first. After some practice, these new positive associations will become the new positive habits replacing your old pattern. It's important to think of these replacements and have them ready before your pattern shows its ugly head. Awareness will help you to know when to implement these replacements.

It is important to remember that every time we look for something to fill us up from the outside world, it will never be enough. This is a sign that we are disconnected from our true selves, our center, our core, God. This is a great time to look inside and see what will truly fill your soul. When you are living in alignment and are truly connected, you will begin to find less of a need for outside gratification.

Summer Line-up Keeps Ghost Trackers Busy

by Margaret Ehrlich, Inspired Ghost Tracking Meetup Group organizer

Summer is here and the Inspired Ghost Tracking Meetup Group has a full schedule of events to keep our paranormal investigators (and friends) busy with three very special guests and at least four investigations.

We start our summer off with Rob Gutro, author of Ghosts and Spirits: Insight From A Medium at our June 11 meetup at Inspired Journeys. Rob Gutro is a medium who is still growing in his abilities to communicate with Earth-bound ghosts and spirits who have passed. If you're interested in ghost hunting and want to know the who, what, where, when and whys of ghosts and spirits and how to understand them, Rob's book will provide some insight and answers. Copies of his book will be for sale for $12.95.

Then on June 27, we join Inspired Journeys at their Get Inspired Expo. Our special guest will be author Randall Keller who will talk about his latest book, Voices From Forever. We'll also have information about upcoming investigations and you'll be able to join the meetup group.

Our last summer speaker is Nancy Du Tertre, a well-known psychic detective and spiritual medium. Nancy has appeared on the television show "Mystery Hunters" and numerous radio show appearances. We were privileged to have Nancy at a previous meetup, and are very happy to welcome her back to our August 13 gathering at Inspired Journeys.

And of course we wouldn't be a ghost tracking group if we didn't conduct investigations! Our first will take us to Antietam Battlefield in Sharpsburg, MD on June 19 where we will search for paranormal activity. Antietam is reportedly one of the top 10 most haunted battlefields in America, second only to Gettysburg. Many ghost hunters have investigated Antietam Battlefield and have come away with paranormal photos of "orbs" and strange mists. Let's hope we can find some too!

On July 31, the team will investigate the Patapsco Female Institute in Ellicott City. We will divide up into small groups and perform EVPs on the grounds. It will be a great learning experience for all who attend!

Finally, we'll head to Waldorf, MD where we will investigate the Dr. Samuel Mudd House on August 27. The house is well-known for it's ghostly inhabitants, including Lincoln assassinator John Wilkes Booth. It has also been featured on "Ghost Hunters".

All meetups are free to attend, but require group membership and registration. Investigations have associated fees which can be found on our website. If you'd like to join the Ghost Trackers, visit us online at www.meetup.com/inspiredghosttracking. ✧
